Thank you for your interest in Leadership Bakersfield. Please understand that participation in the program must have the support and commitment of your employer if you are not self-employed.

Participation Requirements

In order for Leadership Bakersfield to accomplish its stated goals, the full participation of each individual is necessary. Class guidelines include:

- Attendance on the first two class days is mandatory.
- Missing one of the mandatory class days (Sept. 13 & 14, 2018) or more than two full-day absences, counted in half-day (1/2) increments during the program, will result in being dropped from the program with no tuition refund.
- Late arrival by 10 minutes or more or partial attendance at any session in excess of three occurrences will result in being dropped from the program with no tuition refund.
- Full participation in the curriculum is a requirement for graduation.
- One session is a two-day duration (with a day-and-a-half penalty for missing Saturday).
- Participation in a class project is required outside of scheduled class dates.
- Use of personal communication devices such as cell phones are not allowed during class time.
